I. AUTHORITY:

Deputy Secretary of Youth Services (YS) as contained in La. R.S. 36:405. Deviation from this policy must be approved by the Deputy Secretary.

II. PURPOSE:

To promote a positive, respectful and safe work environment that fosters employees' productivity, safety and security.

To inform all employees of their responsibilities to keep YS' workplaces free of violence.

To set into place a plan for quickly responding to violence if it does occur.

III. APPLICABILITY:

All employees of Youth Services. The Deputy Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Undersecretary, Deputy Undersecretary, Chief of Operations, Probation and Parole Program Director, Youth Facilities Director – Statewide, Executive Management Advisor, General Counsel, Regional Directors, Facility Directors, and Regional Managers are responsible for implementation and monitoring of this policy.

IV. DEFINITIONS:

Assault - An attempt to commit a battery, or the intentional placing of another in reasonable apprehension of receiving a battery.

Battery - The intentional use of force or violence upon another; or the intentional administration of a poison or other noxious substance to another.

Credible Threat - A statement or action that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his own safety or that of another person and would, in fact cause such fear.

Domestic Violence - When a person has a pattern of coercive behavior that is used to gain power and control over another. The behavior includes, but is not limited to the following (refer to YS Policy No. A.2.60):

- Physical violence;
- Sexual, emotional or psychological intimidation;
- Verbal abuse;
- Stalking;
- Use of electronic devices to harass; and
- Economic coercion.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP) Unit Coordinator - Employee designated by the Unit Head to ensure that EAP services are provided and that EAP records are kept in a confidential manner.

Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) – The operation of a system of human resource administration which ensures an environment that will provide an equal opportunity for public employment to all segments of society based on individual merit and fitness of applicants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, political affiliation or disability (except where sex, age or physical requirements constitute a bona fide occupational qualification necessary to the proper and efficient operation of the agency/organization). The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is the federal regulatory body for EEO related complaints and charges.

Louisiana Employees Online (LEO) – Statewide management system which includes the Comprehensive Public Training Program (CPTP) providing online courses accessible to all state employees and which can be accessed at: <http://www.civilservice.louisiana.gov/Divisions/Training/Default.aspx>.

Operations Shift Supervisor (OSS) - Responsible for a range of duties that support management in maintaining a safe, secure facility. Shift Supervisors oversee administrative and operational security activities during specific shifts; manage staff during each assigned shift; ensure adequate security coverage; lead count procedures; oversee the custody, supervision and control of secure care youth; manage frontline security staff; assist in controlling youth movement; assist in directing the use and issuance of keys, locks, and security equipment.

Training Records Entry Completed (TREC) – The database used to track training hours of YS employees at some secure facilities.

Unit Head – For the purpose of this policy, the Deputy Secretary, Facility Directors and Regional Managers.

Unusual Occurrence Report (UOR) - A document that must be completed by staff to report incidents or observations of events that may have an impact on any aspect of the agency. UOR forms shall be made available to all employees working in all areas at all times. Employees must complete and submit a UOR prior to the end of their tour of duty on the day the incident was observed or when the incident or observation of events comes to the employee's attention in any way. If a UOR form is not available, the employee must use any paper available to report the pertinent information. UORs may also be submitted by email (refer to YS Policy No. A.1.14).

Violence - The commission of an assault or battery or the making of a credible threat. In this context, an unwarranted exertion of force or power, including any intentional actions or words meant to embarrass, ridicule, degrade or provoke another that results in physical or emotional injury to that person or any verbal, physical, or psychological threat or assault on an individual intended to cause, or actually resulting in, physical and/or psychological damage is considered violence. Such behavior includes, but is not limited to the following:

- Unwelcome name-calling, obscene language, and other abusive behavior;
- Intimidation through direct or veiled threats;
- Physically touching another individual in an intimidating, malicious, or harassing manner, including unwelcome touching of a sexual nature (refer to YS Policy No. A.2.8); and
- Physically intimidating others with such acts as obscene gestures, "getting in your face," fist-shaking, and throwing any object.

Workplace (or worksite) - Any site where an employee is placed for the purpose of completing job assignments, inclusive of facilities surrounding properties and parking garages.

Workplace Violence - Violence that takes place in or at the workplace. Workplace violence can be committed by an abusive employee, a manager, supervisor, co-worker, customer, family member, or even a stranger.

V. POLICY:

It is the Deputy Secretary's policy to achieve and maintain a violence-free workplace for YS employees and those conducting business at its worksites.

YS will take every reasonable step to create a safe and secure work environment free of violence, aggressive acts, verbal and non-verbal threatening behavior and harassment toward or by its employees or the public they serve.

Any employee who commits an act of workplace violence, makes a credible threat, or engages in assault or battery on another employee shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

In addition, any criminal acts which may occur at a YS office or facility are serious matters and shall be reported, investigated and documented pursuant to YS Policy No. C.1.3.

VI. PROCEDURES:
